AUTHORIZATION TO USE AND EXCHANGE INFORMATION

Introduction

Specified information can be shared among ALL of the agencies listed below without having to obtain any additional signed consent from the client. The Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form was developed for use by the following agencies:

- Local departments of social services
- Area agencies on aging
- Health department clinics and programs
- Community services boards
- Department of Correctional Education
- Department of Youth and Family Services
- Service delivery areas for the Job Training Partnership Act
- Local departments of Rehabilitative Services
- Local school systems
- Regional offices, Department of Corrections
- Regional outreach offices, Department for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing
- Regional Offices, Department for the Blind and Vision Impaired
- Virginia Employment Commission Offices

The “referring agency” is defined as the agency that initiates the completion of the Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form with the individual. The referring agency may use the form to request or to transmit information to other agencies. Agencies may be considered either a “referring” or an “other” agency, depending upon which agency is contacted first by the client. If all parties agree, additional public and private agencies, facilities, and organizations may be included.

Agencies are assured that, when properly executed, this is a legally valid form that meets not only their own agency’s state and federal requirements, but also those of the other participating agencies. The Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form has been reviewed by the Office of the Attorney General to assure compliance with federal and state confidentiality requirements. Agencies may choose to use a different uniform release form that addresses their individual needs if it meets the state and federal confidentiality and release of information statutory and regulatory requirements of ALL involved agencies.

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Confidentiality Requirements

To ensure compliance with federal alcohol and drug abuse confidentiality requirements, this form excludes the general sharing of information about clients in drug and alcohol programs. A separate release of information form specifically for alcohol and drug abuse records should be used each time information is shared between agencies.

Purpose of the Authorization to Use and Exchange Information Form

The Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form is designed for use by agencies that work together to jointly provide or coordinate services for individuals with complex needs and should be used along with the referring agency’s specific procedures for obtaining a valid release to exchange information. It also can be used to assist agencies obtain information needed from other agencies to determine an individual’s eligibility for services or benefits. The completed form should reflect that the client (or his or her representative) controlled the choices and understood the process. When using this form, always keep in mind the importance of client wishes, client choices, and client comprehension of the process.

Agency staff and the consenting person will first determine whether the client might be eligible for services or benefits provided by other agencies. This determination should be based upon the needs, interests, and circumstances of the client as well as staff's knowledge of other agencies' services or benefits and eligibility requirements.

Referring agency staff must explain the following to the client:

- Potential services and benefits that might be available from other agencies.
- What information these agencies might need and for what purpose(s).
- The purpose of the form.
- The consequences of signing or not signing this release.
- Key provisions and protections (e.g., revocation, access to agencies' written record).

Staff should make every attempt to ensure that the consenting person understands the provisions of the form and should make appropriate efforts to accommodate the special needs of the consenting person. If the consenting person is unable to read or is blind or visually impaired, staff should read the form to him or her. Interpreters should be made available for people who do not speak English and for those who are deaf or hearing impaired. If the consenting person does not appear to comprehend the meaning of the form, it should be explained. If staff have ANY doubts that the consenting person is not comprehending the purpose and provisions of the form, they should ask the consenting person questions about the form (what the form allows the agency to do, etc.).

Based upon these answers, if staff determine that the consenting person is NOT comprehending the purpose and provisions of the form, staff should follow their agency's procedures for assuring that the form is signed by a legally authorized consenting person who fully comprehends the purpose and provisions of the form. The signature of a consenting person who does NOT comprehend what he or she is signing is not valid.

If the consenting person agrees, the form should be completed. This should be done by the consenting person, wherever possible. The consenting person must sign the form and insert the date in the indicated place. Staff explaining the form to the consenting person must sign the form in the indicated place. For those agencies with procedures requiring a witness (e.g., for a person who cannot write), space is provided for a witness to sign the form. The witness must observe the consenting person signing or placing a mark on the form and then must sign as indicated. The referring agency must give a copy of the completed form to the consenting person.

Sharing Information with Other Agencies

It is important for the referring agency to notify the other listed agencies that they are parties to this agreement to exchange information. This notification can be by telephone or through written correspondence. This notification must be entered into the client's record. If the referring agency wants to receive information from other agencies, it must provide a copy of the signed consent form with its initial request for information form each listed agency.

Virginia Privacy Protection Act Requirements

To ensure compliance with the Virginia Privacy Protection Act, each time information is disclosed by any of the listed agencies, staff of the disclosing agency must enter the following information into the client's record:

- Name of the agency and the name, title, telephone number of the individual receiving the information.

- Type and source of the information disclosed.
- Reason or purpose for the disclosure.
- Date the information was disclosed.

This requirement can be met by using a disclosure log (sample attached) or through the agency's own record keeping policies and procedures.

NOTE: The consenting person has the right to review the records of disclosure of the referring and other agencies upon request during the agencies' normal business hours.

Agency Record Keeping Policies and Procedures

Referring Agency: The original signed copy of the Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form, disclosure record, and any related materials shall be maintained in accordance with the agency's record keeping policies and procedures.

Other Agencies: A copy of the Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form, disclosure record, and any related materials shall be maintained in accordance with the agency's record keeping policies and procedures.

Renewing or Amending the Authorization Form

The referring agency can renew or amend (e.g., by adding additional agencies) the original signed copy of the Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form by having the consenting person sign and insert the date beside the amendment on the original form. The referring agency must give a copy of the amended form to the consenting person and forward a copy of the amended form to each of the listed agencies.

Revocation of Authorization

Consent to exchange information will expire on the date or condition agreed to by the consenting person. However, anytime prior to the expiration, the consenting person may choose to revoke or cancel this consent either with all or with selected agencies.

The consenting person may revoke his or her consent by informing any of the involved agencies in writing, by telephone, or in person. This notification must be noted on the back of the Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form and signed and dated by the agency staff person receiving the request to revoke the consent.

If the consenting person exercises the option of revoking his or her consent (in entirety or with selected agencies) to share information under the agreement, the agency receiving this notice shall inform all other listed agencies that are authorized to exchange information under the agreement of the revocation of the consent.

Clients Who Refuse to Sign the Authorization Form

It is absolutely essential that the client understand and appreciate what will happen as a result of signing this form. The client also needs to understand that there is no requirement to sign this form, but that not signing the form will result in specific consequences. If the form is not signed, the client must deal with each agency individually to obtain needed information, and/or the agency may not be able to provide services. If the form is signed, the process for applying for and receiving services may be easier for both the client and the involved agencies.

When Not to Use This Form

The Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form should not be used with:

- Individuals who do not comprehend the purpose and substance of the consent form; or
- Individuals for whom drug or alcohol abuse diagnostic or treatment information is being shared.
In these cases, a separate consent form (attached) should be used.

Can Other Interagency Consent Forms Be Used?

Agencies should accept the Authorization to Use and Exchange Information form as a legally valid form. However, they may choose to use a different release form that addresses their individual needs IF it meets the state and federal confidentiality statutory and regulatory requirements of ALL the involved agencies.

NOTE WHERE INFORMATION ACCOMPANIES THIS DISCLOSURE FORM: This information has been disclosed to you from records protected by Federal Confidentiality of Alcohol or Drug Abuse Patient Records rules (42 CFR part 2.) The Federal rules prohibit you from making any further disclosure of this information unless further disclosure is expressly permitted by the written consent of the person to whom it pertains or as otherwise permitted by 42 CFR part 2. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information is NOT sufficient for this purpose. The Federal rules restrict any use of the information to criminally investigate or prosecute any alcohol or drug abuse patient.

*Instructions for Preparing the Interagency Consent to Release Confidential
Information for Alcohol or Drug Patients*

PURPOSE - This form is used in lieu of the “Consent to Exchange Information” form when sending or requesting information from a substance abuse program.

A substance abuse program is an entity that receives federal funds of any type that is providing one or more of the following:

- Diagnosis
- Treatment
- Referral for Treatment of Substance Abuse

Only substance abuse programs meeting this definition are governed by federal regulations.

Substance abuse programs covered by federal regulations may release information which identifies a person as a substance abuser, as a general rule only when:

- The person has consented to the release of information by signing the special form.
- A medical emergency exists and the information is being released to medical personnel.
- The court authorizes release.
